Washington Residents With the Passing Throng

Miss Marguerite Caperton, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. William B. Caperton, who has been visiting in New London, has arrived in Newport for a visit of several weeks.

Former Governor of Indiana and Mrs. James P. Goodrich, accompanied by the latter's niece, Miss Marie Moorman, arrived yesterday in New York aboard the Mauretania, after several months spent in Europe.

Prof. and Mrs. Walter Ballou Jacobs, who are motoring from their home in Providence, R. I., to the Blue Ridge mountains, spent the early part of the past week in Washington, where they were the guests of Mrs. Jacobs' brother, Mr. D. C. Chase, and Mrs. Chase, of Chevy Chase, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dana of Boston, who lived in Washington during the war, are at Breakers Ahead, Southampton, L. I., for the remainder of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Dana have spent June and a portion of July at Bernardsville, N. J.

Mr. George P. Blow has come to Washington from his summer home, York Hall, near New York, Va., to attend the United States Chamber of Commerce directors' meeting and is staying at Wardman Park Hotel.

Mrs. Moore, wife of Dr. Meade Moore, and their small daughter, will go to Gloucester, Mass., this week and remain until September at Bass Rocks, where Dr. Moore will join them for a vacation next month.

Mrs. Ruth Clarke Watkins of Columbia, S. C., visiting her sisters, Miss Pearl Clarke and Miss Erin Clarke, in their home, at 1017 16th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finkenshtadt of Cleveland, the latter formerly Miss Lillian Birney of Washington, have taken a cottage on Lake Michigan, where they are established for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kay and Miss A. I. Baxter of Boston are stopping at the Powhatan while visiting in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Carr of Washington have gone to Newport where they are staying at the Casino.

Mrs. William Higgins of Washington is visiting Mrs. Stephen J. Downey at New London, Conn.

Miss Katherine Moore Franks of the Victoria apartments has as guests for several days, Miss M. Van Aken, daughter of Col. Lionel Van Aken of Stamford, Conn., and Miss Josephine Simms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simms of Birmingham, Ala.

Miss Lena Strauss of the Cavendish, is spending the summer at the Hotel Ambassador, Atlantic City.

of Baltimore, treasurer, Judge Simeon Baldwin of Connecticut was for some time chairman of the directors, but was succeeded in this office by the Chief Justice and lately by Senator Lodge. The headquarters are in New York city. The other members represent several American cities, and include Judge Alton B. Parker of New York and Messrs. Moorfield Story of Boston, Dickinson of Nashville, former Secretary of War Henry St. George Tucker of Virginia and many others equally as famous in legal circles. Happily, the number of refugees is decreasing as conditions grow calmer in Europe, and less than a fourth of the pensioners formerly carried on the roles figure there now. But the care of lawyers' families is still of sufficient moment to urge the association to continue its labors for another decade of years.
